Mission:

A leading development organization in the service of civil society, committed to the humanitarian principles and works to build a cohesive society with quality projects with high efficiency.

Preface :

A new year that is taking place from the age of our people in Syria and from the age of the Horan Association as a civil society and humanitarian organization that has set in mind the building and service of Humanitarian.

A new year in which the Syrians are still in Syria or in the countries of asylum suffering untold history since the Second World War, this suffering has overshadowed the Syrians in various social, economic, psychological and educational aspects, leaving huge gaps in need of repair, restoration or reconstruction.

This year was a year of huge challenges for Ahl Horan Association because of the increasing international pressure on humanitarian organizations. However, the Association continued to provide services and implement its projects and took it upon itself to be next to its people and its children to clear the wounds, ease the pain and work what was able to take the human hand and help him if possible

This report shows the achievements of a full year of the Association in the following sectors

- Food security and livelihoods sector
- Shelter sector and non-food items
